Chest Workers Outstanding In 1953 Campaign

"Not only does the $21,000. raised in Andover by the community chest represent the largest amount we have ever raised here, but it was the outstanding accomplishment of our 1953 campaign," commented Dean K. Webster, Jr. of Andover, the chest president who made these remarks at the closing campaign supper.

Under the leadership of Eugene A. Bernardin, Jr., the more than 300 volunteer workers worked tirelessly during the closing days of the campaign to raise $21,000. for the 13 local Red Feather agencies and the USO.

Two of the seven Andover sections made 100% of the goals: Special gifts, William T. Rich, chairman, 101%; small stores, James D. Cahill, Jr., chairman,

Punchard Beats Methuen 48-0

Punchard romped over Methuen 48 - 0 in the annual game between the two teams played last Saturday on the playsteal.

The Blue Devils had no difficulty in rolling up a big score before a crowd of 2000 as they swept to an impressive 388 yards of gains by rushing and tallied seven touchdowns in their attack.

At no time was the home team forced to punt as it kept rolling along to amass the biggest victory margin over a Methuen club since 1912 when they flattened their opponents by a similar score.

Saturday's win was the seventh

Atty. R.K. Gordon Takes Out Papers For Selectman

Atty. Richard K. Gordon of Lowell st., trial justice for Andover, has started local political circles buzzing by taking out nomination papers for selectman.

The term of Selectman J. Everett Collins expires next March. In the past few months the names of two or three other possible candidates have been mentioned as possibilities in the race for the office next spring.

The youngest trial justice in Massachusetts when he was appointed early in 1949 by Gov. Dever to succeed Atty. Walter C. Tomlinson, Atty. Gordon has presided over the local court sessions in the town house regularly since that time.

A graduate of Punchard in 1939 and of the Suffolk Law school in 1947, he is a member of the Massa-

Merchants Plan Attractive Program For Christmas

Red Cross Sending Gifts To Navy Men

Andover chapter of the Red Cross will send 15 Christmas-on-the-high-seas packages as its participation in the annual program for men on navy ships.

This action was taken at a meeting of the chapter's executive committee at which Ernest S. Young, chairman, presided. Also present were Mrs. David Thompson, Mrs. Harold Johnson, John E. Gilcreast, Mrs. J. J. Tavern, Winthrop Newcomb, Charles Whiteside, and Miss Barbara Loomer, executive secretary.

The Tuesday club under the chairmanship of Mrs. Joseph A. Rand has volunteered to give the wrapping material and gift-wrap the packages.

The executive committee also discussed plans for fund raising. David M. Thompson, chairman, will call a meeting of this committee in the near future.

Laymen To Hold Conference Here

A regional conference for Congregational laymen in the North Essex, South Essex and Andover associations will be held from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. Saturday, Dec. 6 at the South church.

Reservations for the luncheon may be made with George Glennie or Thaxter Eaton, Sterling Williams of Belmont, president of the Massachusetts Laymen's council, will preside.

Andover merchants are preparing through the board of trade to present an inviting Christmas program for the holiday season which will serve to make Christmas shopping here more attractive.

Festivities will commence with a parade of floats and a Santa Claus either Friday or Saturday, Dec. 5 or 6, weather permitting.

The parade will pass through the business district and will conclude with the turning on of the Christmas lights. These have been strung across Main street in about the same manner as last year when the street lighting created so much favorable comment from local residents as well as many out-of-town visitors.

It is hoped that by this time all the merchants will have special Christmas decorations in their stores to tie in with the street lighting.

Plans for further displays, activities and a Christmas party will be discussed at a big meeting of all the merchants in the board of trade to be held the evening of

Senior Play

The Senior class play "The Youngest" will be presented Friday and Saturday night Nov. 21 and 22. This play is a comedy by Philip Barry and promises to be a great success.

There are many veteran performers in the cast. Alan Hughes who was seen in last year's sophomore-junior play will take the male lead as Richard Winslow. Ruth Sullivan, Sidney Tavern and David Wilkinson also have had previous experience and will take the parts of Martha Winslow, Katie and Alan Martin respectively. Mary Lord has the feminine lead as Nancy Blake. Carolyn Blake will take the part of Augusta Winslow Martin. Marion Glennie will play Charlotte Winslow, the mother of this brood.

John Baer will be Mark Winslow, and Richard Buttmann will be Oliver Winslow. This play will be presented at the new Central Elementary school. Tickets may be obtained from members of the senior class, members of the dramatic club or at the door.

Vacation

At 11:15 a.m. Wednesday, Nov. 26 the school will close until Monday, Dec. 1 for the annual Thanksgiving day vacation.

Cheerleaders' Dance

The Cheerleaders' dance will be held in the gym Thanksgiving evening at 8 o'clock. A well known disc jockey will provide the music and all schools are invited to attend. This dance is called the Football Festival and football members will be admitted free of charge. This dance will officially end the football season so let's get out there and end the season with a bang.

Assembly

A special Thanksgiving assembly has been planned for Monday. Mrs. Miriam McArdle has planned a musical program appropriate to the occasion.

Dance

The Junior high school held a Barn yard Square dance Wednesday at 2:30 p.m. Mary Bonnano was the general chairman of decorations with Beverly Becotte and Judith Goldman acting as her assistants. Cider and donuts were served during intermission. A good time was had by all.

American Art week was observed by pupils of the senior and junior high schools and the boys and girls of the eighth grade of Pike school Nov. 3 to 8 with an exhibit of their work in the Memorial Hall library. Photo shows one section of the display. (Look Photo)

School Paper

The Junior High school paper, School Daze, will be out next week. George Durant is the editor. Ralph Arabian, humor; Gail Titcomb, stories; Mary Bonnano, news and gossip; Richard Davis, boy's sports; Christa Hahnenstein and Betsy Caswell, girl's sports and Beverly Becotte, art. A great many other people are also helping to make this first issue a great success.

Notes

A film entitled "The Road to Gaspe" was shown recently in a combined assembly.

The Punchard band, cheerleaders and football team were given complementary tickets to a dance at Methuen Central high last week and all other students were invited. This dance was held the evening after Methuen-Punchard game. Congratulations to the football team, too. You fellows did a swell job.

Harold Howe III, headmaster and Ansi Angelo of the English department attended the North Shore Junior study group at Marblehead Tuesday.

Teaching French To Third Graders

At the monthly meeting of the Central Elementary PTA held Nov. 12 Dr. James H. Grew, head of the French department at Phillips academy, gave a report on the teaching of French in the third grade.

This experiment was started in the Cleveland, O., schools and Andover is the first to try it in Massachusetts. Three teachers from Phillips academy have visited the youngsters three days a week for 15 minutes each and the children now can repeat a few French phrases.

Mrs. Vincent Treanor, president of the organization, presided. Mrs. Paul Simeone reported that $126 was earned at the food sale conducted Nov. 10.

Mrs. John Birdsall Jr. reported on the membership which at present includes 636 members in the Central group, 40% of which hold double membership in the Elementary and Senior PTA groups.

The first attendance banner was won by Miss Margaret Bascom's second grade room, and the special class of Mrs. Anna S. Walsh won the second banner.

At the conclusion of the meeting refreshments were served by Mrs. John S. Sullivan assisted by mothers of the first and second graders.

Smith College Club Holds Fall Meeting

The Smith College club of Andover held its fall meeting last Friday afternoon at the Phillips academy Alumni house. The first president of the club, Mrs. Frederick W. H. Stott, presided while new officers were elected, and then turned the chair over to her successor, Miss Eleanor Tucker. Mrs. John Giblin of Methuen was elected vice president, and Mrs. Charles Hodges secretary-treasurer, with Mrs. Frederick Johnson substituting in Mrs. Hodges absence.

Miss Tucker spoke to the members about the latest changes and improvements in Smith college, and then greeted girls from the surrounding high schools who had expressed an interest in going to Smith. They were: from Andover, Ruth Sullivan and Jane MacAskell; from North Andover, Beverlee Thomson, Ann Bullock, Nancy Burke, Barbara Wainwright, Sandra Vose, Claire Markey and Lois A. Milliken; from Lawrence, Katherine Bateman; from Boxford (but attending Punchard) Mary Lord.

A movie about the college was shown, and afterward Miss Emily Bullock, assisted by Mrs. F. W. H. Stott and Mrs. Elbert Weaver, served refreshments.

Farmer's Almanac Says Storms Due

Next winter's weather will have many storms, according to the 1953 edition of the Old Farmers Almanac, Dublin, N.H., which enjoys a high reputation for its weather predictions.

A violent storm in March, somewhere between the 15th and 22nd will be the highlight of a rainy and stormy month which will conclude the winter.

The first two weeks of December will bring about as bad weather as you'll ever want to see for that time of the year, but the last two weeks will moderate some and on Christmas day there will be more bare than snow covered lawns.

January will be somewhat normal, colder the first two weeks than the last two. The groundhog will see his shadow Feb. 2 meaning a long, cold wet spring. Plenty of snow and cold weather is predicted for February followed by dicted for February followed by milder weather from the 20th to the 27th.

Grange Notes

Andover Grange 133 will meet at 8 p.m. Tuesday, Nov. 25 in Grange hall. The educational committee will be in charge of the program.

Church Notes

The flowers on the altar of the West church last Sunday morning were the gift of Mrs. William A. Trow and members of her family in memory of Deacon William Trow. Mr. and Mrs. Harold Lermond were on the welcome committee at the 11 o'clock service last Sunday.

Last Friday evening about 60 young people gathered at the West church for an evening of fun. Later they were joined by the Pilgrim Fellowship of the Trinitarian Congregational church of Concord, which was on a mystery ride and enjoyed a happy time with games and square dancing. Refreshments were served.

Laymens' Service

"Every Member Canvass Sunday" was observed last Sunday in the West church at the 11 a.m. service. The entire service was in charge of laymen, with Herbert Carter as general chairman.

William Dubocq led in the responsive reading and read the scripture lesson. The sermon text was "The Church Role in the Community". "What the church means to me as a layman", was given by Herman Seinwerth; Warren Lewis spoke on "What the church means to me as a Parent," and Carol Des-Roches spoke on "What the Church Means to me as a Youth".

Walter C. Wilson Jr., spoke for the "Every Member Canvass." The church was filled for the service.

Men's Brotherhood

The Men's Brotherhood of the West Parish church will meet at 8 p.m., Friday, Nov. 21. Clarence Dimmock will preside and Herman Seinwerth will present the program. Atty. Halbert W. Dow will be in charge of refreshments.

Victory Supper

About 100 members and friends of the West Parish church enjoyed a family baked bean supper last Saturday night. A movie, "More for Peace" was presented and a song festival enjoyed.

The 1953 Plymouth is the most completely new Plymouth to be presented to the public in the quarter-century since the original model rolled off the assembly line.

Cranbrook Club Coupe in Plymouth's 1953 Line

Easier riding, two-inch wide angle mounted rear springs absorb small road shocks and in combination with time-tested Oriflow shock absorbers complete the car's truly balanced suspension system.

Upholstery, interior molding and trim are available in a wide variety of harmonizing hues to blend with the buyer's choice of exterior body colors. Sparkling chrome hardware and bright plastic accessories set off the luxurious tailoring.

Height of the new Plymouth has been reduced for improved appearance. Yet engineers have designed even more room into the car's interior and luggage compartment. The 1953 model has more headroom, greater legroom and more hip and shoulder space than ever before.

The lively and dependable Plymouth engine has been given even greater power. For 1953 the horsepower has been increased to 100 and the compression ratio stepped up to 7.1 to 1.

"Control Tower" visibility is provided through a one-piece, more uniformly-curved windshield and a new, larger, one-piece rear window which extends into each rear quarter panel. Total glass area has been increased almost 16 per cent for virtually 360-degree vision range with minimum distortion.

Plymouth's New Belvedere Hardtop for 1953

Plymouth's prime objective for 1953 was a car that was easier to park, easier to handle and easier to ride in. A trial ride quickly proves that this objective was attained.

Moving the engine forward more than two inches gave more body room. Relocation of wheel housing gave more hip room. The axle was moved closer to the front end of the rear spring, almost eliminating rear wheel hop when accelerating on uneven roads or in sand.

Ruggedness is added to the body structure by rear fenders that are integral this year with the quarter panels. Further rigidity results from the use of a sill below the deck lid opening, linking the rear fender structure from side to side. The new, wider deck lid, extending outward to the fenders, provides strong, horizontal lines that add materially to the wider, lower look of the rear end.

A clever innovation on all two-door models is the front seat which is divided, not in the traditional manner at the center, but at one-third of its width to permit easier entrance and exit for rear seat passengers from the curb side. Two can sit comfortably on the wider portion of the front seat while the remainder is tilted forward for easy back seat access.

There is sweep and grace in the styling of the new bodies. The 1953 Plymouth is lower and trim is integrated as part of the design to further enhance the long, low, wide appearance of the car.

Discusses Current Political Picture

James J. St. Germain, assistant professor of political science at Merrimack college, gave a highly interesting outline of the workings of congress in a talk before members of the Andover Service club at the Andover Inn last Thursday night.

Mr. St. Germain, a graduate of the University of Connecticut with a master of arts in government, reviewed the recent election and told his audience not to expect miracles from Eisenhower. He felt there could be very little cut in government spending for some time to come as much of the government expenses are "fixed," such as payments to veterans; that we have made commitments to foreign countries which cannot be curtailed, and that military expenditures will go on for some time.

He said that Eisenhower can formulate policies but that congress must pass on all legislation. The speaker, who is now a doctoral candidate to B.U., and a former expediter of production of the Electric Boat Co., Groton, Conn., launched into an explanation of the congressional machinery through its various committees, and the power our form of government gives to committee chairmen.

He mentioned some of the hearings he had attended before committees and of the few people present when many important bills are being discussed.

Mr. St. Germain felt that newspapers should report legislative hearings, both at Washington and Boston, much more fully so that we can know what our legislators are doing and how they are voting on measures that are being considered.

Vice President Irving J. Whitcomb presided in the absence of the president, Will G. Brown Jr., who was on a hunting trip in Maine. Mr. Whitcomb also introduced the speaker and earlier in the evening was the winner of the free dinner. Mr. Raymond B. Wilbur, new minister of the Union Congregational church, Ballardvale, gave the blessing.

Mr. Whitcomb announced that the next meeting would not be held, because of the Thanksgiving holiday, until Dec. 11. It will be held in the form of a Christmas party at the Andover Country club. Members are asked to bring wrapped gifts. There will be a Santa Claus and a program of entertainment.

Annoyed Teachers in High School

Police searched through streets of the high school area early Wednesday morning following receipt of a report of a man's actions in the high school corridor.

Described as wearing a grey overcoat, grey pants and no hat, a man was first seen in the school cafeteria in the basement and shortly afterward appeared before teachers in the first floor corridor. He was last seen running down Punchard avenue toward the street.

He had disappeared when officers who went to the scene in two police cruisers made a search of the neighborhood. The entire district was covered without police finding a trace of him.

MARRIAGE RETURN

The following marriage return has been filed at the office of Town Clerk George H. Winslow: Mastair John Gillies, Massachusetts General hospital, Boston and Dorothy Scott, 59 Phillips st., died Nov. 15 in the Harvard Memorial church by the Rev. William Sperry.

Silence may be the only argument that can't be answered, but people would rather talk than an argument.

Your $1648

Do you know what happened to $1648 of your money last year?

If your family is an average one, with four members, that much of its income went for taxes, federal, state and local, according to commerce department figures.

And things are getting worse instead of better. The total tax take of government in 1951 was $63,-600,000,000. This year the combined total will be around $80 billion.

Taxes now account for at least 30 percent of the whole national income. That means that about one-third of our working time is spent to support government, not ourselves and our families.

A very large part of the cost of everything we buy, from a loaf of bread to a new car, is represented by taxes.

The theory that taxes need not worry most of us, for the reason that the bill can be paid by the rich, was blown sky-high long ago. The rich are taxed to the point of confiscation now, and if we took 100 percent of their earnings it wouldn't carry government more than a few weeks out of the year. The people of small and moderate means must do the bulk of the paying.

It is in the interests of all to drastically cut taxes. We are paying an incredible price for waste and extravagance in government. It is one thing that must be checked before it can destroy this country from within, which is exactly what the communists and their ilk would like to see.

Government spending will have to be cut. While much of it today may be due to military needs, there is ample room for far greater efficiency in essential operations of the government, and this will be one of the major problems for the new administration.

NEW BOOKS

The following new books have been added to the library; many of them are this fall's latest publications, and may be reserved if not immediately available:

Arrow In The Blue, Koestler.

This first volume of a proposed autobiography by Arthur Koestler deals with the beginning of Hitler's approach to power, and covers the years 1905-1931, when Koestler decided to join the Communist party. This is a brilliant study of the political and social phenomena of the 20th century.

Frank L. Brigham spoke on "Fire Prevention" in Gardner, Me., last Wednesday.

Indian Ridge Rebekah lodge 136 will meet tonight after which the degree team will hold a rehearsal.

Ladies Aid society of West church serves annual chicken pie supper in Grange hall. Mrs. George H. Winslow is president of the society.

Andover plays scoreless tie with favored Exeter at the latter's field. The work of Ted Avery and Harris in the backfield, Capt. Gould and the Blue line outstanding.

10 Years Ago - November 1942

Andover will be "dimmed out" for the duration of the war. New rules apply to house lights, auto lights and street lights.

Firemen to hold 71st annual ball in Memorial auditorium Thanksgiving eve, all proceeds to be turned over to the Andover Servicemen's fund.

In Greely's ad this week: There is a large supply of turkeys from 16 to 24 lbs. There is a great shortage of turkeys from 8 to 15 lbs. For every turkey I wish to buy from 8 to 15 lbs., I must take a large turkey weighing from 16 lbs. upwards. The situation places me on the spot where I shall be very short of small turkeys unless conditions change.

Sec. of War Henry L. Stimson, chairman of Phillips academy board of trustees, made a brief appearance in Andover Saturday when board held quarterly meeting. Did not speak nor attend annual Andover-Exeter game.

Fred E. Batcheller, one of Andover's prominent industrialists, passed away Saturday at his home in Deland, Fla. He was associated with the Pacific Mills in Lawrence for several decades.

Life And Death Of Stalin, Fischer.

A portrait of Stalin as father, son, husband and friend. Also a picture of what Stalin really thinks of himself. Fischer draws much of his information from hitherto suppressed material, articles, secret speeches and letters, etc.

The College And The Community, Brownell.

A former teacher of journalism, editor, writer, now a professor of philosophy at Northwestern university criticizes the dissociation between the working and living community and the scholarly, academic interests of college teachers and students.

Today In Cathedral France, Clark.

This new book about the cathedrals of France cannot be considered another travel book, or another architecture book; it has all the readability of fine fiction plus a wealth of anecdotes and legends.

How To Understand Modern Art, Flanagan.

A careful, clearly expressed summary of the principles of modern art, traced from the beginning. Hundreds of illustrations and explanatory diagrams illustrate the points intended to be expressed by the painter.

Dress Accessories And Gifts You Can Make, Moore.

Over 150 items - easy to make stoles, collars, belts, cuffs, novelties; even coats for pets and scratching posts for the kitten. A wealth of material for the make-and-do readers!

Spy-Catcher, Pinho.

A thrilling and extremely objective account of the war activities of a Dutch counter-intelligence officer who was called by Eisenhower "the greatest living authority on security." Perhaps not a literary masterpiece, but a fine example of strategy of counter-espionage.

Reads U N Pledge At D. A. R. Meeting

At the November meeting of Priscilla Abbot chapter, D.A.R., held at the home of Mrs. William A. Trow of Chandler rd., Mrs. Guy B. Howe, chairman of national defense, read the proposed United Nations pledge, patterned after the United States pledge to the flag, which she said seemed to be an attempt to rule out our country's sovereignty by world government.

Fortunately this pledge, she announced, had been rejected by most of the 48 states. The pledge was one, she felt, that would put the United Nations above the United States.

The regent, Mrs. Roland Weeks, read excerpts from the president-general's message pertinent to Armistice day after the chaplain, Mrs. Horace Bodwell, led the devotional and patriotic exercises.

In reading reports of the secretary and the treasurer it was shown that $47 had been made on the bakery sale held election day.

At the suggestion of Mrs. George Clennie the annual Christmas gifts for children of the Berry school in Georgia are to be brought at the next meeting.

Following the business session an interesting talk was given by Mrs. Jesse Bottomley on old pitchers and pouring jugs.

The hostess, Mrs. Trow, assisted by Mrs. George H. Winslow and Mrs. Myron Clark, served refreshments.

The next meeting will be held Dec. 9 at the home of Mrs. Wilson Knipe of Stratford rd.

Maury McDermott To Entertain At Firemen's Ball

Maury McDermott, Red Sox southpaw in the summer time and vocalist in a Boston night club at the present, will top the entertainment program to be presented Thanksgiving eve at the annual ball of the Andover Firemen's Relief association in the Memorial auditorium.

The Boston pitcher, who has been such a sensation in his new role as a professional entertainer, is coming here direct from his present engagement to be heard in several tenor solos.

Other fine talent will round out a bill of five acts, one of which is a real novelty, that of Albion and his 25 baby chicks, an unusual performance that appeals to children and adults alike.

Just another telephone call — one of the thousands over our lines that day. But how important to that little girl's happiness! Actually, every telephone call is important, especially to the person who's calling — whether it's a call for a kitten or a call for help.

THE COST IS SMALL

That's right. And a call for help costs no more than a call to the grocer's. The price is still pennies — despite the fact there are twice as many telephones you can call today as compared to ten years ago, and your service is faster, better, more dependable. Yes, your telephone is one of the outstanding conveniences of our modern way of life.

Some people who have applied for telephone service are still without it because we lack necessary equipment. To correct this situation is one of our major projects.

Some who do have service, however, are inclined to forget or overlook the telephone's real worth. It is only to such users that reference is made here to the ever-increasing value of telephone service.

HOOD
CRANBERRY APPLES

RECIPE:

Select large tart apples. Wash; remove cores; make a cut midway between stem and blossom ends to allow for expansion during baking. Put apples in covered baking pan; pour 1 to 2 tablespoons of white sugar into each cavity then stuff with cranberry sauce. Pour ¼ inch layer of water into pan; cover and bake in 375° to 400° F. oven until center of apples can be pierced easily with tooth pick (30 minutes or longer). Serve warm, topped with thick whipped Hood Cream, and a tiny touch of cranberry sauce on the top for extra color. Put this on your Thanksgiving menu now.

West Andover Man In District Court

Found guilty of charges of drunkenness, operating while under the influence of liquor and operating without a license in his possession, Peter Mararian, 23, of Chandler rd., a U.S. sailor assigned to a destroyer escort, was fined $50 on the first charge and $5 each on the other two charges in district court at Lawrence last Friday. He appealed and bail of $400 was supplied.

Lawrence police officers testified that on Nov. 5 Mararian was found in a drunken condition in a truck which was parked at an angle across the roadway on South Broadway.

An additional complaint of unlawful use of an automobile on May 3, 1948, on which he was defaulted for non-appearance on the day set for disposition after being found guilty, was filed by the court. This involved the use of his brother's automobile beyond the time for which he was given permission.

Youth Center

The Intermediate Basketball league, which opens at the Youth Center tonight is still open for members. Those interested should be at the center at 6:30 o'clock tonight.

Two dances will be held this weekend. One will be on Friday night from 7:30 p.m. to 9:30 p.m. for primary and junior members. The other will be held from 8 to 11:15 p.m. Saturday for intermediate and senior members.

On Tuesday night the Senior basketball league will open when the Royals oppose the Celtics and the Knickerbockers meet the Nationals.

Plans are being made for a skating party in Haverhill the Friday night after Thanksgiving. All interested are asked to sign up in advance. The cost for bus fare and admission will be $1.

The comedy workshop will meet at 7 p.m. Tuesday when a cast will be selected for the first comedy to be presented.

The glee club will meet Wednesday night and the baton classes will start Thursday afternoon, 6 o'clock for the advanced group and 3:30 o'clock for the beginners.

A good grooming class for juniors opens at 5 p.m. Friday, and drum classes are scheduled for 3:30 p.m., Friday. A wrestling club is being formed for seniors. Those interested are asked to sign up.

A boy's short green storm coat has been found at the center. The owner may claim it at the office.

Officer Injured In Auto Accident

Police Officer John Deyermold was treated at the Lawrence General hospital Tuesday night for injuries suffered when shaken up in an auto accident on Brook street about 10:30 o'clock.

He was reported to have been about to make a turn and in order to avoid three cars parked on his left struck a utility pole on his right. He was taken to the hospital in the fire department ambulance and was said to have suffered a laceration on his forehead.
